

Supermarine Spitfire Mk. VB EP637, No. 310 (Czechoslovak) Squadron, Redhill July 1942.
 Between 03.07.1942 and 08.07.1942, No. 310 Squadron was temporarily detached in Redhill for Operation Rutter, the original version of Operation Jubilee.
 For this matter, mechanics painted four white stripes, whose were never used during Jubilee on 19.08.1942. When Rutter was soon cancelled in the afternoon on 08.07.1942, orders were given to delete those stripes.
